

IT'S SHOW TIME

November 2008

Note from the editors: This is our first attempt so please bear with us as we work to improve the HHLT newsletter. If you have any suggestions, please let us know. It will look more professional next month.

Bill Harrison/Helen Esposito

From the President

Twelve Angry Men just left town after an ambitious and praiseworthy effort. No matter where I go, I hear kudos especially for the actors and MJ for pulling it off but also for the choice of a smaller venue which allowed the audience to become more engaged and even hear every word without mikes. And the set certainly enhanced the actors' abilities to do their job. Congratulations to all!

We're reaching the end of the year which means elections next General Meeting. Please make every effort to attend on Thursday, November 20th at 7:00 PM in the Craft Room. If you are unable to attend, there are absentee ballots on your email or call Bill Harrison at x1644.

And now that our fall production is finished, we need to make plans immediately for next year's productions. Toward that end, I have scheduled time in the Ballroom for both Spring and Fall shows. So, for any of us who are even considering directing or being an assistant director, please call Bill Harrison at x1644. He has several plays that have 'made the cut' and are recommended by our play reading committee.

See you Thursday, November 20th.

Denny Cumber

ATTENTION! ATTENTION! ATTENTION!

The next general meeting will be Thursday, February 20th in the craft center. We will be voting for our new board members for 2009.

You will be sent a ballot if you wish to do an absentee ballot.

But please, do your best to attend this important meeting and cast your ballot for our new board members.

There are three vacancies on the board for 2009. The nominees are: Joyce Mancini, Ina Mayer, Jack Merelman, Tom Taggart and Sil Zinicola.

Come and hear the candidates speak and then cast your important vote.

From the Director:

Thank you to all in the Heritage Hunt Community as well as the production staff members of Little Theater who made our fall production "Twelve Angry Men" such a success. From our 13 wonderful actors to our great set designer, Ted Day, to the facilities committee and management who let us use the Billiards Room with the pool tables removed, and to all the four hundred plus audience members who supported us over six performances, we say "much appreciated." It does, indeed, take a village to pull something like this off, even when so many obstacles seem insurmountable or so many people say it can't be done. Now, we have a whole new group of men who are interested in seeing what the next production(s) may entail. Let's keep the momentum going. And always remember:

The play's the thing!

M. J. Brickach

There is a new web site for the HHLT and a new webmaster. Rick Sullivan is our new webmaster and we thank Rick for accepting this role. The new web address is www.hhlittletheater.com. Please check it out and let us know what you think. If you have any ideas, please pass them on to Rick.

You Should Have Been There

Who needs 'Trick or Treat' when there are HHLT friends having a party! Food, drink and the pleasure of good friends made for a great Friday night.

There were prizes: Most Sophisticated: Grace Baier
Most Identifiable: Ina Mayer as Red Riding Hood
Most Easily Converted: Roger DelRosario
(told you that you should have been there to understand that one!

See you all the Christmas Party.
